

I can truly say that it has been a great honor to have known and learned from him.

Outside it is about 12° above zero and turning colder by the hour. It's 11:00 PM and Saturday is going to be a ~~busy~~ day for me. I imagine that I'll spend most of it working on my plate. I hate weekends up here, but if I have something to do it isn't so bad. The blue devils get me when I'm idle, that's one reason why I'm so prolific (in some fields) and once I get back in the old schedule I'll bid them a fond farewell.

I'm going to write Dad as I haven't much money left. All my fortune is gone all 400.00 of it, on ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~fund~~, trips and an airplane ticket. I paid my tuition out of my living expenses and now have financial matters to worry about. BUT, I can spare ten dollars for the films and I'm sending it with this letter. Take care of your self, Stu, and write me soon. Snow is expected here Sunday.

Saturday. P.S. I've worked about 12 hours on the plate I can tell ~~I~~ now that it is going to be my finest. I haven't hurried a bit nor spared my time or labor. Eureka.
