

matter. I'll tell her I'll be nice & treat her as a friend, but I still doubt her appearance. Anyway, it'll be fun. Don't let me fail to take you to see Maïja because she was disgusted when she got snubbed last season. You'll like her. It'll be like last time - unplanned, no frenzy - just quite, genteel types, living.

This past weekend I motored (hired) to Charlotte, N.C. There is no more perfect city anywhere. I visited this little girl and had a good time. Apollo shot hell out of me though and I'm a sort of tragic figure right now - all unappealingly peeling pink, etc. About Europe I'm still determined but my travel agent (ahem) said Icelandic was booked from May until July. The only other next cheapest way is a student's sailing for $400 round trip. I've written my congressman to find me a cheap way. If worst happens, I may damn it all & take the student's trip to develop a gregarious vein. Spent, spent. We'll talk about this when you get here. Come on Friday if you can. Do come Friday! If possible. I don't know how you can notify me your flight - arrival time - in time unless you telegram (+400 Hawaii $) or call (DR-3-1228, Atlanta) Telephone is 1.75 for 3 minutes - but we know somehow, so I can meet you at the airport & you'll save all that money. I'll be here (at Hawaii Rd) Thursday night I expect, so let me know by a telegram or call.

Should anything happen, like my mother have a baby - the first of her own since Jack & I are adopted - you know - and I not be here, if you call, then leave your number & I'll call you that night.

'like a bird scratchin' for worms,
I remain yours ornithologically,
Jim (the Griffin) Mims

P.S. I have diarrhea today.
