Dear Stu,

Mary Wright Lamb Connell bought the moody landscape yesterday for $150⁰⁰. I said I would ask 175⁰⁰ for it but I had a sneaking suspicion she'd take it at 150⁰⁰. I hope this meets with your approval. Ordinarily I don't do that.

Bill Runyon came in to see the new landscape but didn't like the church so wants to commission a panel of bugs like Hydes and as wishy-washy as Runyon is we may or may not have a sale - but do them anyway in your SPARE time and will try to sell him.

Scott and John are sitting here talking so if my letter ramble it's because I'm trying to listen, talk, and write at the same time.

The list of people who want your paintings are as follows -

Bill Runyon - small landscape and panel of bugs

Eric Hyde - panel of bugs

Elene Wilkinson - landscape

Rodney Johnson - landscape

Chris Wulancy - landscape

Dr. Hicks - landscape

Cliff Blank - landscape

This is all so far but should give you something to work with.

Congratulations on your academy acceptance.
Will look forward to the next time you come home.

Love
Paula
