Dear Scott:

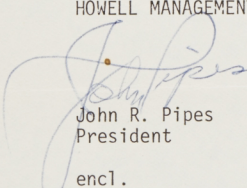

I am sorry for the misunderstanding concerning your painting, "Soap and Water", purchased by Mr. John McMackin from Carr Gallery. The first knowledge I had that the painting did not belong to Carr Gallery was upon receipt of a letter from Stuart dated 24 February 1984.

When Mr. McMackin purchased the painting, he paid Carr Gallery $1,000 plus sales tax. I am attaching a check in the amount of $2,000 made payable to you and Carr Gallery for the additional $2,000 due. Ralph Carr acknowledges receipt of the $1,000 from Mr. McMackin and has said he will forward to you promptly.

Sorry for the misunderstanding.

Very truly yours,
