Dear Stuart:

Harlan, Trammell, Henry and I will have our annual Mill Creek Campout on October 23, 24 and 25. We invite you to come.

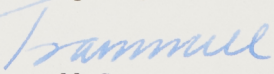

You may arrive anytime from noon on Friday, the 23rd, to about 5:30 p.m., and we will plan to break up an hour or so after breakfast on Sunday, as usual.

We have some very interesting ideas for this year, but basically I think it will be much as before: Music, talks, music, talking, music, walking, fishing, horses, shooting, talking, a beer or two, etc.

A sleeping bag is all that is required for you to bring; otherwise, everything will be there.

We are getting some invitations out early, to pin down the date and because we might not be able to take care of all our friends we want to be with us. I hope you can come and will appreciate your early acceptance.

Best regards,

Trammell Crow
