OPERA

STUART GENTLING
4801 HARLEY
FORT WORTH, TEXAS 76107

DEAR STUART GENTLING:

On behalf of the 1988 Opera Ball Committee and the Fort Worth Opera Association, I want to say a special thank you for your generous contribution and support to this year's successful event held on September 10 at The Fort Worth Club. Without the civic spirit and backing of friends such as you, we would never have been able to maintain the Opera.

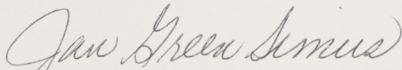

The new Opera season will open in November with the production of "Faust" at the Tarrant County Convention Center. "Barber of Seville" will be presented at the Scott Theatre, followed by "Madame Butterfly" at the Convention Center. Ticket sales are very good, and we are looking at another successful season. This is made possible by you.

Enclosed is our gift catalog from the Opera Ball evening. You will find your listing under Donors or Silent Auction or Bazaar. During the regular Opera season you will also be listed in the Performance Programs.

As you are planning your budget for the coming year, please include us. If you were unable to attend the ball this year, you will want to make plans to do so next year.

Again, thank you for helping us.

Sincerely,

Jan Green Simus
1988 Opera Ball Chairman

Grand Opera Ball 1988

I would like this opportunity to personally thank each and everyone that has contributed so much of their time and energies in making the 1988 Grand Opera Ball a reality. It has been a most pleasant and very rewarding experience working with all of you. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

To all of our donors and contributors, I appreciate your generous gifts. Without you the ball would not be the success that it is.

To the media thank you for your support and for making us known throughout the metroplex.

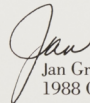

To the Opera Board, Opera Staff and especially our General Director — Mario Ramos thanks for everything. You have made me feel a part of your staff.

To my 1988 Opera Committee. . . .
Hooray you did it! You have all been fabulous. The gift committee who obtained over 300 wonderful, special gifts, the invitation committee who hand addressed over 6,500 invitations, the decoration committee who added the beautiful accents to this lovely club, entertainment, display, reservations, food and beverage, casino, bazaar, volunteers, auction, corporate tables, program design, door prize, banking and publicity — you made it all happen.

To my two right hands — Judy Harman and Sally Pipes, what can I say but thank you so very much.

To my family and business partner, thank you for allowing me the time away and for all of your help and support.

Let's Have A Grand Opera Ball!

All money or chip transactions will be done at The Bank in the Casino. Casino will close at Midnight and The Bank closes at 1:30am.

SILENT AUCTION and BAZAAR

The happy conclusion of this occasion depends on a gentlemanly understanding between participants and the volunteers who have graciously consented to staff both the Bazaar and Silent Auction. The committee has done its best to procure items and services and to establish values which, if anything, are conservative. All services donated for the Auction and Bazaar will be available up to one year from the 1988 Ball unless otherwise designated in the program or gift certificate.

BAZAAR

Select your item or items. . . ask the Volunteer for the receipt and to tag the item or items with a red sold dot. The volunteer will keep one copy of the receipt, you will take the other three copies to the cashier located in the Bazaar. After you have paid for the item, you will be given a paid receipt which you will use to claim your item or items. Gift Certificates will be handled in the same manner. Take the receipt from the board, to the cashier in the Bazaar. She will stamp receipt paid and give you a certificate plus the receipt.

SILENT AUCTION GUIDE

Guests will fill out a written bid which will be handed to one of the volunteer staff who will validate your bid as to time, date and amount. Your bid will then be posted to the proper spot. This shall establish an irrevocable contract and payment must be made before The Bank closes.

Before the first board closes at 11:30pm you will receive a 10 minute, and 5 minute warning. When the bell sounds, no more bids will be validated. Board #2 will close at 12:30am, and board #3 will close at 1:00am.

All Auction and Bazaar items may be purchased with cash, check, credit card or casino voucher at The Bank.

Arrangements for the removal of all hand portable items must be made at the conclusion of the Ball. The Committee assumes no responsibility for such items following purchase.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS:

Fort Worth Town Center Mall has most graciously underwritten tonight's performances of the "Two Bit Operas". We sincerely hope you will enjoy these fun, satirical looks at opera. They are meant to be entertaining and light. You will be entertained by:

9:15pm

"The Devil In Ms. M."

10:15pm

"Shave and a Haircut"

11:15pm

"Madame Butterball"

Directed by: Mr. Carl Johnson

Performances to be held in the CAMILLIA SHOWROOM.

RECORDING STUDIO:

Tonight you will have an opportunity to record with your favorite singing sensation. Words, music and tapes will be furnished. All that is needed is you and perhaps one or two of your closest friends. Sing along with Frank or Tony or Whitney . . . for a mere $10.00 a tape you will be the newest singing sensation in Fort Worth.

PICTURE WITH THE STARS:

Take a look into the "Green Room". Just add a few props, and quick as a flash you are a star — Opera that is. For your memory album and only $5.00, you will be captured with the Stars. If you are really shy or have a costume party to attend at Halloween, Never Fear — Opera masks are available for two for $5.00.

1988 OPERA BALL POSTER

Melinda Page, Fort Worth artist, designed this year's Opera Ball invitation and poster. The three 1988-89 operas are presented on the invitation and poster. One hundred signed and numbered posters are available in the bazaar at a cost of $20.00 each.

VOLUNTEERS

We are most fortunate this year to have a very professional volunteer staff that has donated their time and expertise in order to assure you of an elegant evening.
