SOCIEDAD DE AMIGOS DE LA CULTURA MEXICANA

1990 A NEW DECADE OF FRIENDSHIP

Mexico presents a unique mixture of traditions from which the modern Mexican culture arises. Spanish and Moorish cultures, merged through the centuries with Aztec, Mayan and other native cultures to produce a way of life with a strong personality but traditionally open to the world for external influences and opinions. Mexican culture is nowadays a way of gazing at the future through the looking glass of that strong personality forged by tradition.

The community of Dallas has shown a unique interest in the Mexican culture, both traditional and contemporary! ...So, in order to fulfill this, an enthusiastic group of persons representing all areas of life has created the society of Friends of the Mexican Culture. Our goal is to promote and further the knowledge of this great culture, for we believe that understanding, true understanding, is the only solid basis of harmonious coexistence.

We want to show you this exciting perspective.

We would like you to participate in this enriching cultural adventure.

Members have free access to our expanding library, and will be invited to periodic meetings, workshops, and lectures held at our quarters.

Join the new decade of friendship, join us now!!!
