Dear Stuart:

This follows my letter of March 20, 1991 and your returned call and note.

I'm somewhat embarrassed to bring up Ralph again, but I still have not heard from him regarding his embezzlement of my funds and prints. Your kind offer to replace the missing prints and to also give me an additional Bird Book was most generous.

We are again beginning to need to plan wall decorations and your prints would be the most suited. If your offer still stands, please let me know what I can do to move the action along. If you do happen to see Ralph, and he still values my friendship, please ask him to call. I won't bite (Hard!!), and we need to put this behind us.

Cordially,
