Dear Scott -

Here it is! Sorry it took me so long to pay you but I was trying to squeeze the last nickle out of the interest. (Actually, I didn't have the money until now)

I love the portrait but find it strangely disarming - Rather like seeing yourself standing in the hall as you walk to the john at 6 am - startling but familiar. You could have put more hair on - but don't - it wouldn't fool anyone, even me.

We'll all be there in October for Mom's birthday. See you soon!

Love, Peter
