Dear Mr. Gentling:

Texas is nature on a grand scale. Shaped by this land, our sense of place is part of who we are. Without it, we are diminished. We believe The Nature Conservancy has developed creative, effective ways to save and nurture Texas' fragile resources, and we enthusiastically endorse its efforts. As part of these efforts, we are delighted to present an opportunity to support The Nature Conservancy of Texas by sponsoring the third annual spring party on May 10, 2002.

Held in the gardens of Tandy and Lee Roy Mitchell's home at 9769 Audubon Place, wild things & wild places will celebrate the Lone Star State's abundance of natural beauty as well as the plethora of endangered animals. This "tropically wild" evening will feature exceptional cuisine, live music and dancing under the stars, as well as a live auction offering nature excursions and original art. Some of the highlights of the evening include a falconry demonstration, fly fishing mini-clinics and personal introductions to native Texas animals.

As an underwriter of wild things & wild places, you will enjoy an array of benefits including a table for ten, listing in the invitation (distribution: 5,000) and inclusion in the program (distribution: 300). Last year's spring event was touted as one of the best parties of 2001 by Paper City. For your review, we have enclosed a proposal highlighting the benefits, as well as a fact sheet. This event has sold out since its inception; to insure reservations, please return the enclosed form by March 1.

On behalf of The Nature Conservancy, we hope you will join us in supporting The Nature Conservancy of Texas and the half a million acres it protects in our great state. We look forward to working with you to make this party a tremendous success.

With best personal regards,

Sally Buford Berry
