Hi Stuart,

Enclosed in this box are eight copies of your book Of Birds and Texas which, as I explained on the phone with you today, we would like to donate to San Antonio's public television station KLRN for their annual Blazing Gavels Auction & fundraiser. I'm confident that signed copies of your book will attract a lot of attention and help generate support for the station.

I've enclosed a label for you to put on the box once you've signed the books and repacked them. We were a little confused about whether UPS would pick up a package billed to a third party at your house, or whether billing to a third party would require you to bring the box to a UPS office. So, to make things simple for you, the label will direct the box back to me and I will then send it down to San Antonio.

Thanks for your willingness to sign these books. By the way, I finally got a look at the Houston Chronicle article that Fritz Lanham wrote. Wasn't that wonderful? I was so thrilled to see what a fine job he did featuring the two of you and your beautiful book!

Warmest regards,

Beth Wilson, Publicity
