Dear Stuart and Scott:

The mourning dove/dinosaur track, wren/boots, and road runner/snake prints have been framed and are now on the walls in our main jury room so that the hundreds of jurors who use the room each year will be able to enjoy your artwork as I have for many years. Thank you for your generosity in providing the prints to the federal judiciary at an exceptionally reasonable price.

With best personal regards.

Sincerely,
