Dear Stuart and Scott,

Thank you so much for opening your home and sharing a viewing of your Precolumbian art and your amazing drawings and paintings. All are real treasures, and it was a special treat to get to see them.

It also was a pleasure to talk with you both and have a few moments together with two people who share my passion for ancient art and culture of Mesoamerica.

I hope we have another opportunity to get together in the near future. Stay well, and good luck on finishing your amazing addition to the house.
