

Dear Suzanne,

I can not believe I am writing another letter to you so soon after the loss of Stuart. It just breaks my heart! Although I never knew Soft as well as I knew Stuart (did anyone?) I do know we have lost a giant in art, a giant intellect and a giant heart. To have lost them both is really beyond comprehension.

RAMONA SEELIGSON BASS

I am so very, very sorry. Your love and support for him was,
I'm sure, what comforted
him and soothed him.

He was a lucky man. I also know he is thrilled to be with his beloved Stuart. That he finished his major project and his
was a life well spent.
With all my love and sympathy,
I join you, Ramona
