Dear Mr. Evans:

Melissa Houtte, editor of Dallas Life Magazine, suggested I contact you about permission to reprint the article "Flights of Fancy" which appeared in the May 10, 1987.

The cover story features artists Scott and Stuart Gentling of Fort Worth, on whose behalf this request is made.

The artists and this agency have purchased several hundred copies of the original, and are informed no other copies are available. Only "contest copies remain."

Intended use: Personal, among friends, and to libraries, museums and other individuals who have purchased a copy of the limited edition illustrated art book, "Of Birds and Texas."

Quantity: 250 to 500 copies.

Additionally, the reprint will be in black and white, actual or original size. Layout will be changed only slightly to make it fit in an eight-page folio. A "Reprinted by Permission" line will be added. No commercial messages will appear in the reprint.

Thank you for your consideration. I lookforward to your prompt response, by phone or by letter.

Sincerely,

Preston F. Kirk, APR
