Dear Scott,
Dear Stuart,

Silence — only if it were not to be misinterpreted — would be the best way to respond to that wonderful moment spent with you both: the same silence as one needs after reading St. Augustine, or hearing Haendel's Concerto Grosso (op. 6).

VERMEER opens on November 12th at the National Gallery of Art in Washington. It would be fabulous (for me) to see this show with you.

Until very soon. Yours truly, Jonckheere
