Dear Stuart and Scott,

Mrs. Carol ~~S~~spawn of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, just phoned that she would be glad to receive your folio~~l~~ for that venerable institution. It has a new annex with plenty of room for oversize books. I shall also give them the roll of proofs unless you want them back.

This should make you happy. I fervently hope so. I shall have the good memory of the spirit in which you made this generous presentation.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Alice Ford

Just back from Darwen. I'm not moving.

Tree sparrow? JJA wrote (Plate 188) pair represented... on a twig of the barberry which were procured at Boston [1832]. The drawing from which it has been copied was made by my ~~own~~ youngest son."

I spent $2\frac{1}{2}$ months at NYHS year ago, over all the Audubon drawings, both published & unpublished, and made notes concerning each, to fill a ledger. —

Your book is ready to go — but with one for Scott?
Yes? No? AF
