

Fort Worth cabin painted for fund-raiser

Fort Worth Star-Telegram

To raise money for sesquicentennial festivities this summer, Fort Worth officials commissioned this painting of the Parker Cabin, the oldest residence in the city. The picture was painted by twin artists Scott and Steward Gentling. Officials hope sales of prints will bring in $50,000.