Dear David,

Enclosed you will find my check for $9,000 as partial down payment to begin the project. I will be using your letter of September 5th 1984 as an interim agreement until the attorneys can draw up a more proper document. I think that we agree on the essentials and that we have a good mutual understanding of what will be required of both of us in the way of performance. I am placing my signature under your name on the letter, and I am sending you a xeroxed copy for your files.

It is important for you to remember that you will have to allow me to have a lien on the presses until after you have done work amounting to the amount of money that I am fronting for the project. Also I will need a term life insurance policy for the amount of the project with me as beneficiary. This will cost very little money especially if the term of the policy extends no longer than six months or so. I assume that you agree to this, since we mutually agreed to these terms on the phone a couple of weeks ago.

I hope that your trip is a success and that you return home safely. Call me when you get back, and I will come to Austin as soon as I can.

Bon voyage,

Stuart W. Gentling
