Dear Stuart:

I am enclosing a rough draft toward a revision of the agreement. The various provisions in any contract open up a Pandora's box of new points on which disagreements might arise. What if one of my presses had a major breakdown? What if....???

With the addition of five (5) new color plates plus the increase in the number of copies from 500 to 875 together with the increase in the number of copies for the text pages--these changes would make an adjustment in the price from $184,930 (as quoted in my letter of September 5, 1984) to a figure of $213,955.

Please give me a call if you have any questions. Also, it would be better if we could all sit down and discuss the various questions.

Sincerely,

David Holman
