

Gentling Book of Texas Birds

902 Boland Street

Fort Worth, Texas 76107

Dear Stuart and Scott:

I am amazed and disappointed that you have run into such dire money problems. It is heart breaking to see any artists have to suffer the assaults that come from all quarters when a project gets embroiled in commerce.

But because your project is so worthy, so beautiful, so unique, I most certainly hope that this trial will pass and the "Bird Book" will be completed. Don't let anything stop you now. You are too close to your goal to quit now.

Naturally, David is suffering, too. Thus letters are necessary in order to communicate our miserable financial situation. But really once you get this problem solved, the outcome will be so satisfying that we will all rejoice that Wind River Press was so honored by being chosen to print OF BIRDS AND TEXAS. So keep fighting the battle with the money lenders. It is all worth it.

Most sincerely,

Barbara Holman
