

Doregreen Books

July 26, 1984

Holman writes letter to offering to do all the color work.

August 1984

Gentling decides to let Holman do the color printing as well as the text.

Holman begins to look for press

September 1984

Stuart Gentling sends $8,000 to Holman for deposit on printing press.

Oct,
Nov
December

Negotiations with H. Walter Museum of Science and History is constantly delayed. This causes a delay in processing, loan with Bowie Bank. The loan is finally granted ^{at} the end of the month.

January 8, 1985

Loan papers are signed.
Holman does not like the Contract submitted to him. He changes in offer of July 24th. Negotiation continues through the month.

February 3rd 1985

Holman signs Contract.

March, April, May

June 19, 1985

Holman produces the first 2
prints

July

In late July the color printing
finally begins in earnest.

Call Denney Ingram }
John Crooks }