Dear Stuart:

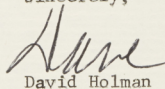

We are shipping four prints to you today by Purolater.
The invoice will be included with the prints.

Thanks for your prompt approval of the last shipment. The bank sent a check shortly afterwards.

We hope that your shelving is progressing quickly as the boxes are starting to pile up with the finished prints. We would like to ship them as soon as possible. Did you understand about the insurance that you will have to place on the prints so that they are covered? The shipper does not want to handle such high value cargo without your insurance.

Let us know your thoughts on this.

Sincerely,

David Holman
