The New Gallery Press takes great pride in announcing the publication of plates 1 and 2 of a projected portfolio on the birds of Texas by Scott and Stuart Gentling. These full-color offset lithographs are limited to editions of 1000. Each print is individually signed and numbered by the artist.

This year, for the first time, we are making a limited and exclusive pre-publication offer at a greatly reduced special price. The offer is good until January 1, 1978. After that date purchasers will pay retail prices.

The prints will be sold at galleries and other retail outlets for approximately $40.00 each. However, during the time of this special offer they will be priced at only $30.00 each, or $55.00 the pair.

Like-numbered pairs will be issued consecutively, based solely on date of postmark or pledge. Christmas orders for Texas residents outside the Dallas/Fort Worth area should be placed no later than December 14, 1977.

Though the Gentlings have long been recognized for their portraits, landscapes, and still-lives, few people know that they excel in the painting of birds. We at New Gallery Press feel that an audience larger than just a few friends and connoisseurs of wild-life art should have the opportunity to enjoy these lovely paintings.

Accordingly, we have persuaded the Gentlings to produce a portfolio of the Texas birds of their choice, to be reproduced in facsimile size by the best printing techniques available. Our present plan is to publish at least two of these limited edition prints a year over the next five years.

You are invited to come by and inspect the original paintings now on view in the studios of New Gallery Press at 902 Boland Street. Just off Camp Bowie Boulevard, one block north of the Kimbell Museum. Open Monday through Saturday, 10 until 6.

Sincerely,

J. O. Phillips, Jr.
