

combination of talents drawn from the exacting disciplines of painting, literature, printing and design. This book then will be an appropriate monument to celebrate the 1986 Texas Sesquicentennial, and as such it will have been created to celebrate our present, to commemorate our past and to provide us and our descendants with a truly exceptional heirloom for the future.

The delivery date for the book is March 1985. Nearly one-half of the edition is already sold, and only 100 copies will be available through dealers. Subscribers will receive a reservation card with their designated volume number, and if the book is purchased as a Christmas present, a gift card with the reserved volume number will be sent to the person of your choice. You certainly will make it a Christmas that they will never forget. For further information please contact your participating book dealer.
