Birds of Texas paintings at Texan Cultures

Watercolor images of Texas bird life by Scott and Stuart Gentling, twin brothers from Ft. Worth, will be on display at The University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures at San Antonio March 3 to April 5. The paintings are on loan from the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History.

Rather than portray the creatures against a sterile white background, the artists situated the birds in trees, against the skies, on the ground and in their nests to convey the rich flavor of the varied Texas landscape.

The Institute of Texan Cultures is located at Durango Boulevard and Bowie Street on HemisFair Plaza in downtown San Antonio. Exhibit floor hours are 9 am to 5 pm Tuesday through Sunday. Admission is free and parking is $1. For more information, call the Institute at (512) 226-7651.
