Dear Audubonians:

My brother Scott has re-confirmed to me today that he is willing to auction off a three-quarter length portrait in drybrush watercolor at your anniversary bash at the Bass Performance Hall on Friday March 5th. It is a $35,000 value. A reserve price of $25,000 will be placed on this offer, which means that bidding for the portrait must begin at $25,000. I will provide a notebook of photographs of Scott's portraits of prominent area people and their children so that people can see his work.

This offer is good only for the night of the 100th anniversary party but if a later portrait commission comes as a result of that party, Scott will honor his Audubon Society commitment as long as money is needed to publish the Gentling book.

Please fax me your acknowledgement of this offer.

Sincerely yours,

Stuart Gentling

PS. Don't forget to Fed Ex those twenty-five tickets, I think I'll need every one!
