Dear Mr. Walter:

It was a pleasure speaking to you today about the possibility of pulling together a traveling exhibit of the Gentling's bird paintings in celebration of Texas Audubon Society's 100th anniversary.

As we discussed Audubon will be having a reception at the Bass Performance Hall (Grand Foyer) on March 5th, 1999. This may be a good place to "launch" our statewide showing of the Gentling paintings and celebrate Audubon's anniversary.

Stuart and Scott are very interested at the prospect of having their paintings become part of a traveling statewide exhibit and with our 20 chapters throughout the state - I am sure that we will have tremendous support statewide.

I await to hear of when and where the exhibit is presently booked for the 1999 year so that we can accommodate this show in our 100th event planning and I look forward to visiting with you on my next trip to Fort Worth.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Catriona Glazebrook
