

AUDUBON

T ★ E ★ X ★ A ★ S

A SEMI-ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF THE TEXAS AUDUBON SOCIETY VOL. I ISSUE 4 SPRING 1999

I have faith in man's future, faith in the possibilities latent in the human experiment: but it is faith in man as part of nature, working with the forces that govern the forests and the seas: faith in man sharing life, not destroying it.

—Marston Bates,
The Forest and the Sea, 1960

CONTENTS

2	From the Chair
2	Cover Story
3	From the Executive Director
3	Second Century Campaign
3	Boat Tours of Galveston Bird Islands
4	Conservation Knows No Boundaries
5	The Last "Tango in Texas" Averted
6 & 7	Centennial Celebration—A Weekend to Remember
6 & 7	1st Annual Native Wildlife Photography Contest
8	Chapter Highlights
8	Chapter Outreach
8	Audubon Refuge Keepers (ARK)
9	Bessie Cornelius—Texas Audubon's Volunteer of the Year
9	Volunteer of the Year Award—First of Many
10	Junior Audubon: Opening Doors to the Natural World
11	A Night of Tribute
12	Thoughts on the Antshrike

Green Jays

By Stuart and Scott Gentling

A Centennial Celebration of Conservation!