Dear Stuart:

I'm sorry you were unable to attend the reception on April 20 and hope you have recovered from your illness. It was a wonderful evening with about 150-175 people attending! Our guests were quite impressed with the exhibit and many have called to express their appreciation for a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

I've enclosed an article that ran in the McKinney newspaper last week (see page 3). Ginny Beverly, would like to do an interview and photo layout with you when you visit the Heard. She's very interested in seeing a copy of your book after seeing the exhibit and reading the articles from Dallas Life Magazine and People.

The exhibit has been a great success and there are many people including myself who would like to see more of your work. Please let me know of any galleries or museums in the area that have your paintings.

Sincerely,

Barbara Johnson
