

CONJECTURAL - MIXTEC PALACE

FRONTAL RECONSTRUCTION

FLAT ROOF - PROBABLY CONSISTING OF WOODEN BEAMS PLACED HORIZONTALLY

THE COLUMNS ARE RECESSED FOLLOWING A CLAY MODEL. THE CENTRAL OPENING IS WIDER THAN THE SIDE OPENINGS.

SQUARE-SHAPED 40-CENTIMETER COLUMNS

TEOTIHUACAN-INSPIRED TABLERO

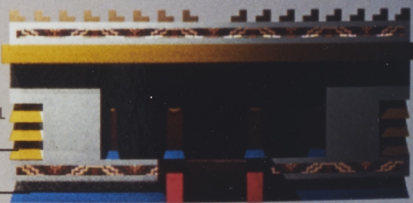

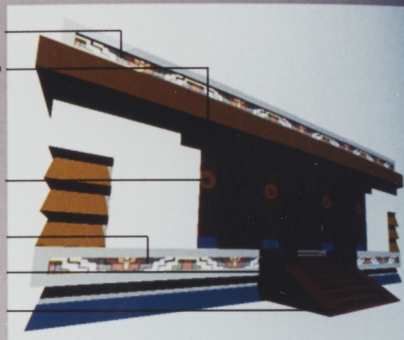

DADO ON TOP OF ALFARDA.

EIGHT STEPS WITH 17-CENTIMETER RISERS. THE STAIR IS ONLY IN THE CENTRAL BAY.

GENERAL DIMENSIONS ARE 6.5 BY 13 METERS DUE TO STRUCTURAL LIMITATIONS. THE TOTAL HEIGHT IS 5.8 METERS.

DECORATIVE ELEMENTS (PERHAPS REMNANTS OF PYRAMID IMAGERY) GIVE A VERY DISTINCTIVE STYLISTIC QUALITY. THE MAJORITY OF CODEX DRAWINGS WITH ARCHITECTURAL REPRESENTATIONS DEPICT THE ALFARDAS WITH A STUCCO FINISH AND PAINTED WITH CONCENTRIC PATTERNS OR WITH RED OCHRE COLOR.

SLOPE FOR THE BASE IS 78 DEGREES.

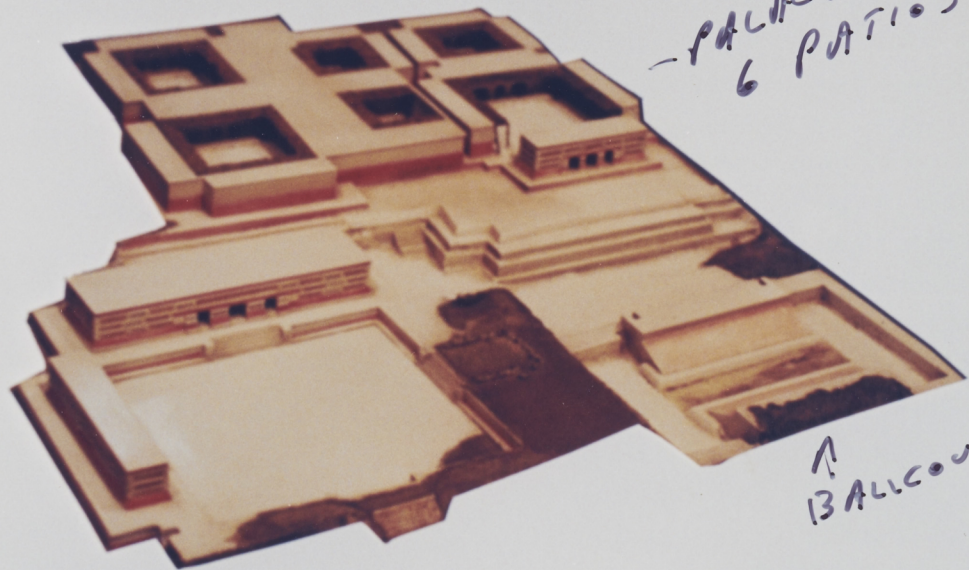

Perspective and elevation views of a typical building, based on an illustration in the Becker Codex. The level of the platform would match the eye level of individuals at ground level. This drawing does not show the roof decorative elements.<sup>7</sup>
