

Center of Time Concept Nichtzeitlich

Center implies^a structural relationship

By itself the idea ~~as a~~ single word "Center" implies a spacial and a structural relationship with something else of which it is a part. It intimates the sovereignty of source in such a way that everything that is other ~~can be~~ gains the nature of its own identity ^{because} ~~by its~~ ~~relationship to it.~~ of its position relative to it.
