

the Temple Mayor in Mexico City.

There is a ^{smaller} ^(40 cm) quite similar sculptured figure designated as an Aztec period ^{figure} sculpture from Vera Cruz that was for sale in Paris at The Hotel George V on the 24th of October 1974. And there are several large ^{large} ^{type} ^{figures} and a wonderfully grotesque But God ^{a few years ago} founded the Southern Valley of Mexico, ^{figures} but they are not of the almost portrait like quality of the famous Eagle Knights and the Huastecs and they are not of Tenochca Mexican provenance.

I do not wish to sell this work, but I do need to have some idea of its approximate value. I am seriously contemplating giving it to the Kimbell Art Museum which is very interested in the work. I am also on good terms with Eduardo Matos. If I returned the head to Mexico I know it would generate immense goodwill for our own Aztec project there. My brother and I have already been invited to show our exhibit of our Aztec drawings, paintings and models there at the Temple Mayor Museum.

If you could let me know what you would charge ~~me~~ to give me an appraisal of this remarkable piece
