

Rene Ortega Guevara

Mario Hernandez

Arg. RENÉ ORTEGA
GUEVARA
INVESTIGADOR DEL
INSTITUTO DE Antropología
UNIVERSIDAD Veracruzana

Júnior # 70
Xolapa, VBA, Méx
tel. 17 8213
18 50 23 FAX

DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM

Founded 1927, Nationally accredited since 1967

Graduate Program in Media Studies

October 28, 1996

TO: Jerry Murad, Honorary Consul of Mexico in Fort Worth
FAX 817-870-1162

FROM: Mercedes Olivera, Journalism Dept. (Dallas Morning News)
FAX 817-921-7322

Dear Mr. Murad:

Here are the names of the four visiting scholars from the Instituto de Antropologia de la Universidad Veracruzana in Xalapa, Veracruz; they have all spent the major part of their careers -- 30 years or more -- at the Institute:

must be slut from must be
Luis Sanchez Olvera, archaeologist and coordinator of this project; has been associated with the Institute for the past 30 years; his expertise is in pre-Hispanic indigenous belief systems

Estanislao Barrera Caraza, cultural anthropologist; his research also has focused on pre-Hispanic religious traditions, including the Otomi

Book > Rene Ortega Guevara, architect; his expertise is in funerary architecture

slight burden
double breasted jacket
Mario Navarrete Hernandez, archaeologist; his expertise is in the aesthetics surrounding the concept of death in pre-Columbian cultures

