Dear Scott and Stuart,

I hope you've had some positive thoughts regarding the La Venta project. I found out that I DID get the grant from FAMSI, IF the project has an illustrator acceptable to their board. I told Sandy Noble, the director, about your work. She looked at my book and the Denver Aztec book and was very enthusiastic. So I hope you have given the matter some thought and can find a way to fit this great project into your schedule. I hope also that you have figured out how much money you want and how much time it will take.

Please do let me know what your thoughts are. I have to let FAMSI know what we will be doing with their money. I also have to let the photographer know what is happening, as he is scheduled to do the work in May. Can you go to Villahermosa with me in May?

I have been calling nearly every day a couple of times a day but have obviously not been able to get you! (Usually the phone is busy!) Please contact me with your response as soon as possible!

All the best,
