

MODELS

These are Scott Gentling's beautifully detailed models of various temples and palaces of Tenochtitlan and the neighboring island city of Tlatelolco in a very small scale.

1) Model of the Sacred Precinct (Templo Mayor) of Tenochtitlan based on the Gentlings' insights and interpretations of the archaeological evidence and surviving early historical accounts. 24" X 26" X 3" high.

2) Model of the Temple of Huitzilopochtli and Tlaloc. 14 3/4" X 16" X 7" high.

3) Model of the Templo Mayor of Tlatelolco. 18 1/2" X 26 1/4" X 3" high.

4) Model of the Teotlalpan (cactus garden that was a model for the ancestral desert homeland). The Templo Mayor precinct of Tenochtitlan. 4" X 7" X 1" high.

5) Model of the Temple of Mixcoatl (Temple of Culhuacan). 7 3/4" X 7 1/4" X 5" high.

6) Model of the Temple Xipe Totec at Yopico in the Templo Mayor precinct of Tenochtitlan (T.M.T.) 3 1/2" X 6" X 5" high.

7) Model of the Temple of Xolotl. (T.M.T.) 1 1/2" X 1 1/2" X 2 1/2" high.

8) Model of the Temple of the Knights of the Sun. (T.M.T.) 5" X 7 1/2" X 5" high.

9) Model of the Temple of Tezcatlipoca - Omacatl. (T.M.T) 10 1/2" X 9" X 6" high.

10) Model of the Huey Tzompantli (Great Skullrack). (T.M.T.) 10 1/2" X 4" X 5" high.

11) Models of the Palaces of the Princes. Tenochtitlan. 9" X 14" X 2" high.

12) Model of the Palace of the Cihuacoatl. Tenochtitlan. 5" X 10 1/2" X 2" high.

13) Model of the Palace of Moctezuma I. Tenochtitlan. 5" X 10 1/2" X 2" high.

14) Model of the Cuicacalli (House of Song and Dance). Tenochtitlan. 4" X 10 1/2" X 2" high.

15) Model of the Palace of Axayacatl. Tenochtitlan. 4 1/2" X 10 1/2" X 2" high.

16) Model of the Palace (Hueytecpancalli) of Moctezuma II. Tenochtitlan. 8 1/2" X 12" X 2" high.

17) Model of the Totocalli (House of Birds and Zoo). Tenochtitlan. 10 1/2" X 15 1/2" X 3" high.

18) Models of the Great Market and Templo Mayor of Tlaltelolco. The market only measures 22 1/2" X 22" X 1" high.

19) Models of the Temples of Ehecatl - Quetzalcoatl, and Cinteotl - Chicomecoatl. (T.M.T.) Tenochtitlan. 7 1/2" X 8 1/2" X 5" high.

20) Model of the Temple of Xochipilli. (T.M.T.) Tenochtitlan. 4" X 4 1/2" X 2 3/4" high.

21) Model of the Tezcatlachco (The Ballcourt of Mirrors next to the western Gate of the Serpent of Mirrors, the Tezcacoaquiahuac) (T.M.T.) Tenochtitlan. Approx. 15" X 15" X 5" high.

22) Gilded wooden box carved by Scott Gentling as storage for his notebooks. 25" X 16" X 15".

23) Box containing Scott's studies of pre-colombian sacred geometry. 14" X 11" X 3".