

"1519 / The One Reed Year: Wonders of Aztec Mexico" Events and Activities

Ongoing thru November 21st: Classroom visits. Buddy Holly Center docents will be available to present The Aztecs and the Fifth Empire of the Sun, a Power Point file created to introduce students and teachers to Aztec culture and to the Buddy Holly Center art exhibit, 1519 / The One Reed Year: Wonders of Aztec Mexico. FREE.

Ongoing thru November 21st: Class tours at the Buddy Holly Center. Buddy Holly Center docents will be available to lead tours of the exhibit, 1519 / The One Reed Year: Wonders of Aztec Mexico. FREE.

Ongoing thru May, 2004: Day of the Dead Traveling Trunk. The traveling trunk offers a comprehensive range of information and tools for incorporating the study of the Latin American holiday, Día de los Muertos, or the Day of the Dead into classes. Activities and lesson plans for different age groups and academic disciplines are included, as well as videos, books, and craft objects that one could find at a Día de los Muertos celebration. FREE.

Thursday September 25 - 6:30 to 8:30pm: 1519 / The One Reed Year: Wonders of Aztec Mexico exhibit opening reception. Gallery talk with artists Scott and Stuart Gentling, moderated by Carolyn Tate. FREE.

Friday October 17th - 2:00 to 5:00pm: Aztec Craft and Feast Day. During LISD In-service, students are invited to come make Aztec crafts with arts educator Ariel Teitelbaum and sample Aztec foods. $5.00 per person.

Wednesday October 22nd - 12:00 to 1:00pm: Brownbag lunch with 1519 / The One Reed Year: Wonders of Aztec Mexico curator Dr. Carolyn Tate, Associate Professor of Art History at Texas Tech University. FREE.

Friday October 31st (TBA): Aztec Dancers. The Aztec Dancers will be available to perform in schools during the school day. FREE.

Saturday November 1st - 2:00 to 4:00: Family sugar skull-making workshop. Families are invited to the Buddy Holly Center for Day of the Dead sugar skull-making with arts educator Ariel Teitelbaum ($5.00 per person).

Sunday November 2nd - 8:00pm: Procession. The Aztec Dancers will perform at Buddy Holly Center during Procession. FREE.

Contact: Rachel Crockett, Education Coordinator, Buddy Holly Center, for more information and reservations for activities.
*1801 Avenue G * Lubbock, Texas * 79401 * 806.767.2686 * fax 806.767.0732 *
www.buddyhollycenter.org