

Unmistakable Love,
is two alone,
sun-dappled
in the grass.

A child's radiant face
looks up —
The Buddha smiles down
his warm grace.

Three more for fun.

She is gone,
a first-love forever lost,
— so dark
is the moonless night.