CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

1. The carriage or flight is subject to the Special Conditions and Regulations of the Carrier which are displayed and open for inspection at their Booking Offices insofar as those Conditions and Regulations are not inconsistent with the provisions set out hereunder.
2. In the case of international carriage where the passengers journey involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention as amended from time to time and set out in the schedules of the Carriage by Air Act, Chapter 256, may be applicable and that Convention governs and in most cases, limits the liability of Carrier(s) for death or personal injury and in respect of loss of or damage to baggage.
3. In the case of internal carriage, where the passengers journey does not involve an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, until such time as the aforesaid Carriage by Air Act, Chapter 256, is made applicable to internal carriage, the Carrier(s) liability for death, personal injury and in respect of loss of or damage to baggage or cargo, is limited in terms of the Special Conditions and Regulations of the Carrier, which are displayed and open for inspection at their Booking Office. The Carrier shall not be liable for damage occasioned by delay in the carriage by air of passengers, luggage or cargo.

Save where liability is imposed in terms of the Warsaw Convention as contained in the Carriage by Air Act, Chapter 256, referred to above:-

- (a) The Carrier, their servants and agents shall be under no liability in respect of or arising out of the carriage or any other services or operations of the Carrier, their servants or agents; and the passenger by acceptance of this ticket hereby renounces for himself, his representative and dependants, all claims against the Carrier for compensation or damages, whether sustained on board the aircraft or in the course of or from any of the operations of flight embarking or dis-embarking or in the course of any ancillary services or otherwise caused directly or indirectly to him or his belongings or to persons who, except for these conditions, might have been entitled to make a claim whether or not caused or occasioned by the act of negligence, neglect or default of the Carrier, their servants or agents, mechanical or other defect or otherwise howsoever caused.
 - (b) In the event of the conditions and Regulations stated or referred to above, or any part thereof relating to the exclusion or limitation of the liability of the Carrier being contrary to the law of the state or territory in the Court in which an action is brought, the liability of the Carrier shall be excluded or limited insofar as such permits and the Carrier shall be entitled to the benefit of every exclusion or limitation of liability permitted by such law.
4. Save where otherwise provided in terms of the Convention aforesaid and laws referred to above, any action against the Carrier shall be brought in Zimbabwe.
 5. The passenger acknowledges by the issue of this ticket that he has agreed to the Conditions of Carriage enumerated above and that he has acquainted himself and has agreed with the Special Conditions and Regulations of the Charterer displayed as aforesaid at the Booking Office of the Carrier.
 6. No agent, servant or representative of the Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any of the provisions of the Conditions of Carriage and the Special Conditions and Regulations of the Carrier.
