VAJRA HOTEL

WELCOMES YOU AND YOUR GUESTS TO ENJOY AND TO USE ITS UNIQUE EAST MEETS WEST FACILITIES.

Commissioned by the owners to be architected and built by Margret Augustine of Sarbid Ltd. of London, an architect famous for her harmonising of beauty and practicality, Vajra first of all offers an Architectural Feast.

Windows and Doors designed by Sarbid and Utam Raj of Patan,
 who descends
 directly from the corners of the great Durbars of Kathmandu Valley.

Ceiling frescos
 painted by Rinchen Norbu,
 the Great Tibetan Master, and in the Restaurant wall frescos painted
 by Bimal Moktan
 the outstanding Tamang Painter, are only some of the features you will discover here.

The site itself, near the powerful Bhiswori Temple Complex, from which the area derives its name, stands on the age-old pilgrim road to Swayambhu (which means self realized master)

And on any early morning you may join the pilgrims, Nepali, Tibetan, Bhutanese, in fact you may see a Bhddhist from any part of the world on their ascent to the great 2000 years old Stupa which affords an extraordinary panorama of the sacred Valley and the high Himalayas.

The Rooftop Garden of the Hotel gives a magnificent morning or sunset panorama looking directly on the Pagodas of Durbar Marg (Center of Medieval Kathmandu) and up to the Swayambhu Stupa: A twenty minute walk takes you to each.

THE FABLED FLOWER TRAIL GARDENS

are much beloved for those relaxing hours after mountain expeditions or bazaar sorties.

THE OCTOBER GALLERY EAST

Presents art events by outstanding Nepalese and Tibetan artists both Traditional and Contemporary, and provides a venue for visiting artists from around the World
